ONE OF OUR OWN

Today, you are invited to a Book Signing of "The Forbidden Ceiling" by Rose Robinson, a member of CTK parish. The story of a black woman's achievement in higher education, told with keen intelligence, and dignity. The beauty of this engaging sketch is that it lays a foundation upon which much of contemporary achievement in the movement of Black females is based. You may buy a book and have it signed by the author following Mass at CTK. The signing will be held in the church Gathering Area.

FROM OUR DIOCESAN BISHOP

February is Catholic Press Month. Our diocesan newspaper assists me in fulfilling my responsibility as bishop to teach and spread the Good News in the local Catholic Church of Mississippi. Christ Himself came to proclaim the Good News, to reveal salvation. He was sent by the Father to evangelize the whole of humanity, and Christ commissioned His disciples to do the same: "Proclaim the Good News to the whole world". The diocesan paper is one vehicle by which a bishop can speak to all of his people. It is through Mississippi Catholic that our faith communities can be informed of the Church's teachings and keep abreast of the faith life of other communities.

RENEW YOUR SUBSCRIPTION THIS WEEKEND $20
Purchase a subscription to Mississippi Catholic for $20 for someone in our parish who can't afford it.

Keep in touch with your children away at college. Help them stay in touch with their faith for only $10.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Joseph N. Latino,

Bishop of Jackson

We are asked to send the paper to every household in our parish, but without the extra $20 contribution, this is extremely taxing on the parish budget. If you wish to receive the paper but cannot afford it, give what you can, it will be sent to you.
